

OnTrack at SU

Enhanced academic support program for students with attention deficit hyperactivity disorder (ADHD) and learning disabilities (LD).

OnTrack at SU is a fee-based program through the Center for Disability Resources. The program's mission is to engage students in a collaborative coaching model by providing individualized structure and support.

Our goal is to address both academic and social-emotional readiness during the college transition.

To learn more visit:

disabilityresources.syr.edu/students/ontrackatsu/

We would like to recognize the support of University Trustee Reinaldo Pascual '85. His contributions and vision have enabled Syracuse University to launch the OnTrack at SU program.

Center for Disability Resources
Karen Toole - Coordinator

804 University Ave., 3rd floor
Syracuse, NY 13244

t: 315.443.0448 | f: 315.442.1312

e: kmttoole@syr.edu

Program Focus:

- Twice a week face-to-face meetings with trained ADHD/LD coach
- Regular check-ins during the week
- Student-driven plan of action
- Develop time management and organizational skills
- Build Independence
- Second-year option for those who participated in the program for the first year

Fees:

- First Year: $3,200/semester
- Second Year: $1,650/semester
- Need-based scholarships available